2027 SPONSORSHIP PROSPECTUS

RISC-V SUMMIT NORTH AMERICA 2027
2027 SPONSORSHIP PROSPECTUS

RISC-V innovation is revolutionizing the future of computing. The RISC-V Instruction Set Architecture powers billions of processors around the world, across diverse markets and applications ranging from artificial intelligence to automotive, data centers, space, and much more.

RISC-V Summit North America 2027 will bring the ecosystem together to share progress, and connect our sponsors with new potential customers and users of RISC-V technology.

Make sure your message is heard and connect with visitors through sponsorship of RISC-V Summit. We are focused on the ROI of our sponsors by offering a range of options. From speaking opportunities on the main stage, to prominent show visibility, to expo floor presence, to video interviews and more, we are offering multiple ways to showcase your organization and technologies.

Stand out in this high-growth community. Upgrade your presence to Diamond or Platinum levels to maximize exposure, or choose a specific sponsorship which matches your unique needs. Elevate your organization's presence by participating in exclusive events within the Summit program.

Share your vision, announce a new product, or detail your roadmap... the stage is yours. Choose from our sponsorship options to design a presence that will help your organization achieve its business goals and objective.

DEVELOPER ZONE

SPONSOR OPPORTUNITY | 1 AVAILABLE

The RISC-V Developer Zone will be a key destination for those attending the North America Summit, sending the message that "RISC-V is real and ready for developers." It will showcase the range of technologies available to hardware and software developers creating the next generation of computing applications. It is a great opportunity to show your solutions to developers hungry to adopt RISC-V for their projects.

The Developer Zone features companies giving demonstrations of their development products and solutions in action. Sponsorship includes a turnkey pod, signage, promotion, and web listing. The cost is $15,000 with a discounted rate for current sponsors.

The RISC-V Developer Zone also features a display of RISC-V developer boards available for use today. Participation to display is free.

WHY PARTICIPATE?

- Exposure: The Developer Zone will be prominently positioned in the Expo Hall as a major community feature and networking hub, drawing the attention of key players.
- Reach: Showcase your innovations to a diverse audience of developers, engineers, companies, and decision-makers from around the world.
- Networking: Connect with the exact developer community and companies you want to engage with and foster meaningful relationships.
- Leadership: Demonstrate your commitment to supporting the RISC-V ecosystem.
